Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be applied to Ann Hirsch; and,

Whereas, Ann has worked with the Bureau of Administration Central Duplicating for 40 years; and,

Whereas, Ann has been described by many as the "glue" that holds together the department. She is known as the "go to" person, always willing to lend a helping hand, and has been described as "goes above and beyond"; and,

Whereas, Ann is well known for her community involvement in Pierre. Her photography has captivated the essence of the Capitol. Her photos of nature embody the very beauty of our state, and through these captured images she has touched the lives of many. Her enthusiasm for and involvement in racing and her achievements have been rewarding and admired; and,

Whereas, Ann has dedicated her life to the betterment of her community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which makes South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

Whereas, Ann is retiring from the Bureau of Administration Central Duplicating and will be greatly missed; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 7, 2012, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and colleagues in offering her best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

ANN HIRSCH DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-eighth Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Jason M. Gant, Secretary of State